

Design Program

ADVANCED REFLECTIVE PRACTICE

Instructor

Leticia Britos Cavagnaro, PhD
leticia@dschool.stanford.edu

Objectives and Pedagogy

The objectives of the course are for you to grow as:

- a reflective designer, whose work shows care for the long- and short-term needs of people and the planet. Care is equity, sustainability, and attention to detail.
- an adaptive learner who can respond to new contexts and create in a rapidly changing world.

You will engage in activities that introduce methods and frameworks, explore underlying theories from different domains –learning sciences, psychology, social sciences– and, importantly, you will craft your own guiding frameworks and processes to apply to diverse projects across other courses in the program, and beyond. See the learning contract for more details on the course pedagogy.

Course Components

In addition to the required in-person group session (Tuesdays 1:30-3:20 pm in Studio 2) (*), you will:

- complete asynchronous, guided assignments
- read (occasionally listen or watch instead) additional materials

(*) For weeks 2 and 9, you will schedule a 20 min 1:1 walk-and-talk with Leticia, in addition to the group session.

Areas of Exploration

Weeks 1-2	Reflecting on learning
Weeks 3-4	Reflecting on values
Weeks 5-6	Reflecting on consequences
Week 7	Reflecting on biases
Week 8	Reflecting on reflection
Weeks 9-10	Reflecting on collaboration

Deliverables and Grading

This is a 1 unit class, Satisfactory/No Credit

Attendance and engaged participation in at least 90% of the group sessions and completion of 90% of weekly deliverables will earn you a passing grade.

Students with Documented Disabilities

Students who may need academic accommodation based on the impact of a disability must initiate the request with the Office of Accessible Education (OAE). Professional staff will evaluate the request with required documentation, recommend reasonable accommodations, and prepare an Accommodation Letter for faculty dated in the current quarter in which the request is being made. Students should contact the OAE as soon as possible since timely notice is needed to coordinate accommodations. The OAE is located at 563 Salvatierra Walk (phone: 723-1066, URL: <http://oea.stanford.edu>).
